

The Acronym DEMOKLEOS is based on the etymology Demos (whole citizen living ) and kleos ( Fame).

This projects aims to have empowered and inspired teachers, pupils and students about Democratic Awareness and Collective Responsibility. Moreover , DEMOKLEOS, is going to be a weapon which is going to provide educators with tools that counter all misguided trends towards exclusivism, racism, discrimination and extremism.

DEMOKLEOS is a personal integration of philosophies of knowledge and understanding ethical, social, cultural, historical and psychological critiques, together with intentions of the individual and the groups carrying out the project. The project then is not a mechanical application of techniques culled from the many books and the other resources available. DEMOKLEOS is a instrumental for community building, social cohesion and a sense of belonging to society. In today's increasingly diverse, indterdependant societies, the capacity to engage across cultural and other differences and transcend a narrow understanding of a national interest in order to address the common challenges for humanity, is becoming crucial.
